Call for Entry

Lapis Gallery is seeking photographers for our upcoming show titled “Travelin’: Images Found on the Road”. The show is open to all artists working in digital or film photography. The show will explore the idea of when snapshots become fine art and begin to speak to a wider audience. We have all taken images that transcend the moment from personal memories to the human experience.

The show will open on the Friday, June 6th, 2008 and will run for two months with a second opening on July 4th, 2008. There is a $10.00 entry fee per photo. There will be a 15% sales commission on each piece sold.

- Entries due by May 19th, 2008.
- Photographers will be notified by phone and email on accepted / declined entries.
- All accepted works are due at Lapis Gallery by June 3rd, 2008.
